

ERASMUS+ KA103 Call for Application - Student mobility for studies of the 2019/2020 Autumn Semester and Full Academic Year

About the ERASMUS+ Programme

Erasmus+ is the EU's new programme which involves education, training, youth and sport activities.

Further information:

http://ec.europa.eu/programmes/erasmus-plus/index_en.htm ^[1]

1. The objective of the Call for Application

The objective of the application is to allow students to obtain educational, language and cultural experiences and skills in ECHE charter holder, higher education institutions of countries participating in the programme. Student mobility for studies must facilitate the students' academic progress and the development of their personnel skills.

2. Eligible participants

Registered students at the University of Debrecen (BSc, MSc, PhD, higher-level vocational training, full time students, correspondence students) with valid student status. Doctorands are not eligible to apply.

3. Eligible activities

Student mobility for studies in higher education institutions (study period: 3-12 months)

Combined mobilities (for studies and a complementary traineeship period) (3-12 months)

4. Countries participating in the ERASMUS+ Programme

Member states of the European Union (Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, United Kingdom, Estonia, Finland, France, Greece, Netherland, Croatia, Ireland, Poland, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxemburg, Hungary, Malta, Germany, Italy, Portugal, Romania, Spain, Slovakia, Sweden)

Non-EU member states: Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Iceland, Lichtenstein, Turkey, Norway.

5. Application Terms and Conditions

General terms and conditions

Both the sending and the host institution must be an ECHE holder.

Hungarian citizenship or staying in Hungary with a residence permit. Student registered in the University of Debrecen and enrolled in studies leading to a recognized degree or other recognised tertiary level qualification in a full- , or part-time.

The host higher education institutions must have an inter-institutional agreement for student mobilities with the University of Debrecen and should be chosen from the list of the partner institutions available in the online application system [2].

The applicant must have finished at least 2 semesters of studies at the University of Debrecen at the time of applying.

The applicant must meet the requirements set by the sending institution.

The applicant must speak the language of instruction at the host university and must be able to present a certificate proving his/her language skills (except for native speakers). Language requirements are indicated in the Erasmus+ inter-institutional agreements.

The study period can be combined with complementary traineeship. The combination of the two periods means that the traineeship should be done under the supervision of the same host higher education institution where the student carries out his/her studies. The two activities must take place sequentially. Grant amounts for the "combined period" are the same as that of the study period.

Students may receive grants for mobility totalling up to 12 months per each cycle of study, independently from the number and type of mobility activities (zero grant is included in the mobility period)

One tier programmes cover two training cycles, thus students enrolled in such (one-tier) training programmes may receive grants for mobility periods totalling up to $2 \cdot 12 = 24$ months.

The minimum duration of the mobility period for studies is 3 months but at least a whole study period (semester, trimester) including the exam period.

Activities /studies carried out during the mobility must be integrated in the applicant's training program / studies at the University of Debrecen

The receiving institution must issue a transcript of records upon completing the studies at the end of the study period.

It is the responsibility of the sending institution to fully recognise the accepted, fulfilled and documented activities in accordance with the terms and conditions laid down in the Learning Agreement.

During the mobility period abroad students are registered students of the University of Debrecen with full rights. Stipends, social contributions and loans that students are eligible for at the University of Debrecen will continue to be transferred to them during their period of study abroad. If they are tuition-paying students at the University of Debrecen, they will have to fulfil this requirement for the period spent abroad as well. ERASMUS students do not have to pay tuition fee to the host university, and they have the same rights as the registered students of the host university.

Participants must have active students status in the sending institution until the end of the mobility period.
